PURSUANT TO NINTH CIR. R. 27-13 Appellees Descendent Studios Inc. and Eric Peterson respectfully request the Court to allow documents and information that was filed under seal in the District Court to be filed under seal in this action. This appeal concerns orders by the District Court addressing a Binding Settlement Terms Sheet (“BSTS”) entered into between the parties and filed under seal by the District Court. That agreement is confidential and portions of the motions at issue were similarly filed under seal in the District Court to protect the financial terms of that settlement. Allowing documents referring to the financial terms of the BSTS to be filed under seal is necessary to protect the confidentiality of the BSTS and the financial information contained therein. Appellees will file in the public record redacted versions of any document referring to the confidential settlement information that only omits the financial terms of such agreement so that only that limited information is omitted from the public record.
